Subject	Coaching clinics in Ohrid, Macedonia with Zeljko Obradovic, Dimitrios Itoudis and Tone

Dear Friends,

Some of the most prestigious European coaching names, including Zeljko Obradovic, Dimitrios Itoudis and Tone Krump, will hold a lecture during the clinic in Ohrid, Macedonia, during the summer of 2013.

The Coaching clinic will take place in "Biljanini Izvori" arena in Ohrid, the biggest city at the Ohrid Lake, and it's scheduled for 15th and 16th June. The program made by the coaches covers all the most important subjects of the basketball game, and they will all hold lectures both days from 10:00 hour to 16:00 hour.

The Macedonian Basketball Federation, together with the Association of basketball coaches of Macedonia is the host of the Clinic, that has an international character with the focus on learning, improving the coaching skills on particular subjects and exchanging experiences with some of the best in Europe. Besides the speeches and presentations, Obradovic, Itoudis and Krump will also have a court demonstration on the subjects, with the Youth National Team players participating in the Clinics.

Alongside with all the home coaches, many coaches from other European countries will also be part of the Clinic, and the invitation for participation is still open.

For more information about the Coaching Clinic, any interested side can contact the host of the event on editor@basketball.org.mk.

Best regards
